Well, I like both New York and Paris.
But they're very different cities in some ways.
And very similar in other ways.
Take public transportation for example.
The New York City Subway is cheaper than the Métro, but they're both easy to use.
And the weather... well,
New York has colder winters than Paris.
Paris is rainier than New York,
but New York has bigger storms.
What about the buildings?
Well... the architecture in Paris is definitely more beautiful,
but the buildings in New York are more modern.
And living in the two cities?
Well... life is faster in New York.

Bem, eu gosto de ambas, Nova York e Paris.
Mas são cidades muito diferentes em alguns
modos.
E muito parecidas de outras maneiras.
Pegue o transporte público, por exemplo.
O metrô de Nova York é mais barato que o metrô, mas ambos são fáceis de usar.
E o clima ... bem,
Nova York tem invernos mais frios que Paris.
Paris é mais chuvosa que Nova York,
mas Nova York tem tempestades maiores.
E os edifícios?
Bem... a arquitetura em Paris é
definitivamente mais bonita,
mas os edifícios em Nova York são mais modernos.
E morar nas duas cidades?
Bem... a vida é mais rápida em Nova York.
