LISTENING PRACTICE

Zac- What are you two doing here? You aren't playing in the competition on Saturday!

Dylan- What?! Yes, we are. We're a band, too!

Zac- No, you aren't. You don't have a singer, and you don't have a guitarist now!

Rosie arrives.....

Rosie- Shut up, Zac! I'm their guitarist, and I'm playing with them on Saturday! Come on guys. Let's go!

Lewis- What was that about, Rosie?

Rosie- Nothing. Forget it!

Teacher- OK, everybody. Each band is playing two songs, and you're bringing your own instruments. Then, finally, the judges make their decision!

Zac- How long does that part take?

Teacher- It doesn't usually take long, Zac, so don't worry. OK. Are there any other questions?

Everybody- No.

Teacher- Great. We're starting at 7 p.m. on Saturday, so don't be late. OK?

Everybody- Yeah.

Teacher- The competition is at the gym on Albert Street.

Lewis- How long does it take to get there from this part of town?

Teacher- It takes about 20 minutes on the subway. Good luck, everybody!

Later

Zac- Hey, Rosie! You made the wrong decision! Your band is terrible.

Rosie- Get lost, Zac!
